

SOCIETY

ONE of the large affairs of the week was the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Ingalls at their home in Kaimuki, Thursday afternoon, for Miss Ann Klumpke, who arrived here in the Wilhelmina last Tuesday. Miss Klumpke is well known both in America and in Europe because of the many portraits she has painted and for her close association with Rosa Bonheur.

Mrs. Ingalls' home was prettily decorated with red ixoras and ferns, and informality reigned throughout the afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Ingalls, Miss Klumpke and Mrs. Barber stood in the receiving line to greet the many society folk who called during the afternoon.

Mrs. Ernest Ross poured coffee, and Miss Margaret Clark and Miss Edith Posslyn Collais presided over the punch bowls, while a bevy of young girls served ices beneath a large tent on the lawn. The young ladies who assisted Mrs. Ingalls were Miss Elvora Sturgeon, Miss Juliette Cooke, Miss Florence Gurrey, Miss Mabel Hare, Mrs. Warren, Miss Miriam Stacker and Miss Jane Winne. Among those who called during the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mrs. Walter Frear, Mrs. L. Tenney Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Z. K. Myers, Mrs. Austin, Mrs. Gulick, Miss Margaret Steven, Mrs. O. A. Steven, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Wichman, Mrs. Henry Waterhouse, Mrs. Chester Hunn, Mrs. Bettis, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Frederick Davis, Mrs. Lando, Mr. and Mrs. Robert I. Lillie, Mrs. Robert Norris, Mrs. C. H. Brown, Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Buchly, Miss Ward, Mrs. Sam Peck, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bowen, Mrs. Henry Bicknell, Miss Knightly, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Gurrey Jr., Dr. Emerson, Mr. Edmund Melanphy, Mr. Arthur Restarick, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. Clark, Miss Susan Clark, Mrs. Lydia B. Coan, Miss Johnson, Miss Pope, Mrs. Philip Frear, Mrs. Anna B. Tucker, Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Jonathon Shaw, Miss Jessie Shaw, Mrs. Collais, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Cooke, Mrs. William Dimond, Mrs. Ray Rietow, Mrs. Emil Berndt, Miss Lucy Dimond, Mrs. Clayton Tracy, Mrs. Carl Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. McNeil, Dr. Ceresole, Mrs. Daniel Logan, Miss Iola Logan, Mrs. Hare, Mrs. Morong, Miss Arthur, Mrs. McGrew, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Miss Ripley, Mrs. Simonton, Mrs. James Guild and others.

"Hoop Party" Entertaining.

One of the most original and novel affairs given for any of the members of the younger set was the "hoop party" at which Mrs. Alfred Castle entertained yesterday for Miss Elinor Castle. Upon their arrival each of the young ladies was presented with a hoop and stick, tied and wound with bright-colored ribbons. Later they adjourned to the lawn, and soon an old-fashioned hoop race was in progress. After much excitement and fun the prize, a silver picture frame, was given to Miss Thelma Murphy. The guests included Miss Elinor Castle, Miss Elizabeth Carter, Miss Thelma Murphy, Miss Mary von Holt, Miss Hilda von Holt, Miss Margaret Jones, Miss Catherine Jones, Miss Elsie Wichman, Miss Pauline Schaefer and Miss Maye Biven.

Arbor Day Luncheon.

On Monday Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey entertained at a delightful Arbor Day luncheon under the koa trees at Niniko. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths, Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Moore and family, Mr. and Mrs. Z. K. Myers, Miss Lily Hathaway, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick D. Lowrey, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Lowrey, Mr. and Mrs. James Kennedy, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Mrs. Helen Storm, Mr. Alan Lowrey and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey.

Informal Luncheon on Thursday.

A pretty informal luncheon was given on Thursday by Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey at Niniko, her country home in Nuuanu Valley. A dainty centerpiece for the table was formed of pink begonias. Covers were laid for Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mrs. Walter F. Frear, Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. Snider, Mrs. John Erdman, Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Mrs. Helen Storrs, Mrs. Abraham Lewis, Miss Lily Hathaway, Mrs. W. L. Moore, Mrs. Frederick D. Lowrey, Mrs. Sherwood Lowrey and Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey.

Miss McCheesney's Swimming Party.

Miss Lillian McCheesney was hostess at an informal swimming party Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Bowler at Kalaheva. The guests included Miss Mildred Chapin, Miss Louise Effinger, Miss Ruth Stacker, Miss Florence Ballou, Miss Madeline Burnette and Miss Mary Smith.

Linen Shower for Miss Winter.

Miss Florence Winter, who is to leave Honolulu in the near future, was the guest of honor at a linen-shower yesterday given by Mrs. Frank Batchelor at Waikiki. The house was literally alight with brilliant red ixoras. After the guests had spent the greater part of the afternoon sewing, Miss Winter was showered with many dainty pieces of linen. The guests included Miss Florence Winter, Mrs. Winter, Mrs. Carl Andrews, Mrs. Gibson, Miss Jane Weight, Miss Allison Nott, Mrs. Sam Nott, Mrs. Leslie Clark, Miss Miriam Clark, Miss McCarthy, Miss Louise McCarthy, Mrs. Weinert, Miss Iwalani Ripley, Mrs. Henry Ginnac, Mrs. Harmon Anderson, Mrs. Arthur Linnemann and Mrs. Bechert.

Picnic Party for Miss Carter.

Miss Phoebe Carter was the guest of honor at a picnic party at Ford's Island on Wednesday, at which Mrs. Carl Holloway was hostess. In the morning a number of the girls of the younger set motored to Pearl City and were taken to the island in launches. Late in the afternoon a number of the young men found their way to Mrs. Holloway's home, where they, too, enjoyed a swim and light refreshments. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Carl Holloway, Mrs. Andrew Fuller, Mrs. George R. Carter and Mrs. John Galt. The guests included Miss Phoebe Carter, Miss Elizabeth Carter, Miss Thelma Murphy, Miss Elizabeth Low, Miss Carol Low, Miss Pauline Schaefer, Miss Elsie Wichman, Miss Margaret Center and Miss Maye Biven.

Engagement Announced.

Miss Agnes Armour, whose picture appears in today's paper, has announced her engagement to Mr. Mark Robinson of this city. Miss Armour has been in Honolulu for some time and is exceedingly popular. Mr. Robinson is the son of Mr. Mark P. Robinson of Honolulu and is one of the most prominent young business men here. Although no definite date has been set for the wedding, it will take place some time in October.

Informal Luncheon for Mrs. Harrington.

Mrs. Harold Hayelden was hostess at a delightfully informal bridge and sewing tea on Thursday at the Colonial for Mrs. Harrington, wife of the Acting British Consul. The affair was in the nature of a farewell, as Mrs. Harrington left Honolulu on Friday for her old home in Yokohama. There were about fifty guests present.

Major and Mrs. Neville's Dinner.

Colonel Lauchheimer was the guest of honor at a dinner on Tuesday evening given by Major and Mrs. W. C. Neville at their home on Kinau street. Covers were laid for twenty, including Colonel Lauchheimer, Admiral and Mrs. Cowles, General and Mrs. Maccomb, Major and Mrs. Wooten, Major and Mrs. Cheatham, Lieutenant and Mrs. Ross Kingsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Smith, Miss Cowles, Miss Priscilla Elliott, Lieutenant Sahm, Dr. Tucker Smith, and Major and Mrs. Neville.

Army and Navy Set Lose Popular Members.

The transport and the Ventura have this week taken from Honolulu several of the most popular members of the army and navy set. Captain and Mrs. Clifton Carter and Mrs. F. W. Coleman of Fort Ruger, who have been in Honolulu for the past two years, and whose friends here are legion, left in the transport for Fort Leavenworth, where they expect to remain for the next two years.

Miss Case's Bridge Party.

Bess Betty Case was hostess at an informal bridge party on Wednesday afternoon at her home on Beretania avenue. The prize, a piece of Japanese china, was given to Mrs. Gerald Johnson. The guests included Mrs. James Pine, Mrs. Gerald Johnson, Miss Helen Brown, Miss Helen Rockwell, Miss Julia McStocker, Miss Lydia McStocker and Miss Edith Cowles.

Enjoyable 500 Party.

Miss Dora Atwater was hostess at an enjoyable Five Hundred party last evening at the home of her aunt, Miss Kate Bunker. The ladies' first prize, a silver hairpin holder, was given to Miss Lella Titus and the gentlemen's prize, a silver key chain, was given to Mr. Lothrop Withington. The congratulations, flower leis, were given to Miss Jennie Grieves and Mr. James Morgan. Miss Atwater's guests were Miss Laura Atherton, Miss Ruth Richards, Miss Fanny Hoogs, Miss Marjorie Gilman, Miss Juliette Atherton, Miss Lella Titus, Miss Edna Smith, Miss Violet Atherton, Miss Myrtle Schuman, Miss Margaret Restarick, Miss Carrie McLain, Miss Helen McLain, Miss Jennie Greaves, Miss Alice Hoogs, Miss Muriel Howatt, Miss Martha McCheesney, Miss Bella McCormiston, Mrs. Frank Hoogs, Miss Hazel Gear, Mrs. Jack Young, Miss Sara Lucas, Mr. Jack Guard, Mr. Arthur Restarick, Mr. Arthur Gilman, Mr. David Larsen, Mr. Harold Gear, Mr. Sidney Krauss, Mr. Atherton Richards, Mr. Theodore Cooke, Mr. James Morgan, Mr. John Ashley, Mr. Cyril Hoogs, Mr. Frank Hoogs, Mr. Will Hoogs, Mr. Walter Love, Mr. Watson Ballentyne, Mr. Percy Nottage, Mr. Percy Deverill, Mr. Jack Young, Mr. Bob McCormiston, Mr. Harry Lucas, Mr. Lothrop Withington and Mr. Vincent Genoves.

Kaimuki Card Party.

The Kaimuki Card Club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Emil Berndt at her home on Fourteenth avenue. The first prize, a braten-brass fern dish, was given to Miss Mabel Hare and the consolation, a pair of teak-wood stands, was taken by Mrs. Ray B. Rietow. Among those present were

The Queen's Reception.

Old and new residents of Honolulu and tourists almost by the hundreds visited Washington Place on Monday to pay their respects to Her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani who on that day celebrated her seventy-fourth anniversary.

Her Majesty sat in the midst of a bower of palms and tropical flowers and wore a handsome gown of pale lavender silk and a crescent of diamonds in her hair.

Standing beside Her Majesty were Prince and Princess Kahanalanoale and the Princess Kawanakoa. The guests were presented before the dais by Mr. John Almoku Dominis, of the Queen's household.

To the older residents of Honolulu who have not only attended these yearly functions given by the Queen but have also been guests at the coronations of former days the reception on Monday seemed quite like old times for even the royal kahili bearers were on duty.

Among the many who called at Washington Place were Governor and Mrs. Walter Frear, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Judge Sanford B. Dole, Admiral Ross, Consul A. de Souza Carvalho, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dear to the Hearts of the Women.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S

Oriental Cream

OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

An Indispensable and Necessary Article for Particular Women who Desire to Retain a Youthful Appearance.

Every woman owes it to herself and loved ones to retain the charm of youth nature has bestowed upon her. For over half a century this article has been used by actresses, singers, and women of fashion. It renders the skin like the softness of velvet leaving it clear and pearly white and is highly desirable when preparing for daily or evening attire. As it is a liquid and non-greasy preparation, it remains unnoticed. When attending dances, balls or other entertainments, it prevents a greasy appearance of the complexion caused by the skin becoming heated.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream cures skin diseases and relieves sunburn, freckles, pimples, blackheads, moth patches, rash, freckles and all other blemishes.

Yellow and Muddy skin, giving a delicately clear and refined complexion which every woman desires.

Mrs. Cummins Entertained.

Mrs. J. A. Cummins entertained at a prettily appointed pot luncheon on Saturday in compliment to Mrs. S. G. O. King who was formerly Miss Marie Cummins of Honolulu.

The color scheme for the decorations was yellow and was carried out with golden lilies and satin ribbon. The center piece was a block of ivy almost covered with lilies and ferns. Each of the guest was presented with a yellow liliuokalani. Covers were laid for Mrs. S. G. O. King, Princess Kahanalanoale, Princess Kawanakoa, Mrs. Dargie, Mrs. George Robertson, Mrs. Doris Hopkins, Mrs. Booth, Mrs. Da-

On Monday, in celebration of her seventy-fourth birthday, Her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani entertained a few of her intimate friends at luncheon at her home at Waikiki. The room was prettily decorated with flags for the occasion, and the table was decorated with ferns and red ixoras. The cards marking the places of the guests were hand-painted Hawaiian scenes done on bamboo. Kaula's quartet club played Hawaiian airs during the afternoon. Her Majesty was escorted to her place at the head of the table by Prince Kahanalanoale.
